Carolyn Ullestad Unsung Hero Award

Carolyn Ullestad served as the administrative assistant in the Office of Sorority and Fraternity Engagement and Student Activities Center for seventeen years. Through her work, Carolyn impacted the lives of thousands of students, alumni, advisers, and staff. Carolyn Ullestad was truly the "Unsung Hero" in the office, whether assisting a chapter president with academic rosters, a recruitment chairman with bid cards or council members with budgets or mailings. Her demeanor was always calm and professional within an office of urgency and contagious activity. Upon her retirement in May of 2006, the Office of Sorority and Fraternity Engagement began awarding the Unsung Hero Award annually.
