

FAE 2021 Special Awards

Deadline: Sunday, February 20, 2022 at 11:59 PM

Partnership Award

Chapters may nominate more than one person/organization/department for the Partnership Award. The nominee should be someone/an organization/a department who has contributed to the advancement of the Sorority and Fraternity Community at Iowa State University. This person/organization/department does not have to be affiliated with a particular Sorority or Fraternity organization but should not be a current undergraduate student or adviser.

If you are wanting to nominate an individual/organization/department for this award, please email mtalbott@iastate.edu with the following:

- Nominees Name, Phone Number, and Email Address
- A brief description of the contributions of the person/organization to the Sorority and Fraternity community

Community Impact Award

Chapters may nominate themselves or another chapter for the Community Impact Award. The nominated chapter should have positively impacted the Ames or surrounding area community. How the chapter impacted the community is not limited to any certain type of activity, but it should be focused on populations outside of Iowa State (see Campus Impact Award below for Iowa State specific efforts). Self-nomination is encouraged.

If you are wanting to nominate your own or another chapter for this award, please email mtalbott@iastate.edu with the following:

- Chapter Name, Chapter President Email
- A brief description of the contributions of the chapter to the Ames/surrounding area community

Campus Impact Award

Chapters may nominate themselves or another chapter for the Campus Impact Award. The nominated chapter should have positively impacted the Iowa State campus and/or individuals at Iowa State outside of the Sorority and Fraternity Community. How the chapter impacted the university is not limited to any certain type of activity, but it should be focused on populations at Iowa State outside of the Sorority and Fraternity Community. Self-nomination is encouraged.

If you are wanting to nominate your own or another chapter for this award, please email mtalbott@iastate.edu with the following:

- Chapter Name, Chapter President Email
- A brief description of the contributions of the chapter to the Iowa State campus

Educational Program of the Year Award

Chapters may nominate any educational program they put on that they believe to have gone "above and beyond" for the Educational Program of the Year Award. The nominated program should be 1) educational in nature 2) involved the majority chapter and 3) taken place during the 2021 year. Self-nomination is encouraged.

If you are wanting to nominate a program from your chapter for this award, please email mtalbott@iastate.edu with the following:
